

PROJECT COORDINATOR (M / W) - STAMPING AND FORMING TECHNOLOGY

Your Tasks and Duties

- Independent execution of projects in the automotive industry
- Production support of large tools
- Development of planning Documents
- Reporting (status reports) to our external Client
- Organization of the project process
- Appointment coordination and monitoring
- Supplier management and change management
- Development of solutions to problems in the field of stamping and forming Technology

Your Qualifications

- Training as a Technician, master or graduate Engineer
- Experience in the stamping and forming
- Experience in Project work
- Independent and self-responsible working Method
- Strong communication skills and Dedication
- Proficient in MS-Office
- Fluent in English and German
- Inquisitiveness and flexibility
- Ability to work in Teams, conflict resolution skills and willingness to travel

Application Information

What awaits you: Changing and exciting tasks, a motivated team, independent and flexible work, performance-based pay, flat hierarchies and a full-time job of 40 hours a week

Employment

Full-Time

Place of work

Worldwide

We look forward to your detailed application stating your salary expectations. Please send Application to info@tryout-solutions.de